

Wednesdays 5:00 to 6:30 pm, in presence and online

KHK c:o/re Lecture Series Winter Term 2025/26: Digital Complexity: Beyond Human Understanding

Program

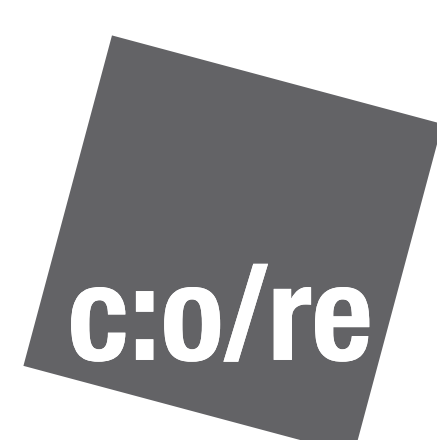

22.10.	Gabriele Gramelsberger (Aachen) Digital Complexity: De-Anthropological Trends in Computing, AI, and Robotics	18.12.	Liesbeth De Mol (Lille) What Is a Computer Program? Or, How I Liberate(d) Myself as a Computer User Keynote 8th HaPoC Conference
29.10.	Anna Tuschling (Bochum) Digitality as a Triad: From the Love Letter to Emotion AI	19.12.	Robin Hill (Laramie) Desktop to Discourse: Philosophy Born of Wordstar and VisiCalc Keynote 8th HaPoC Conference
12.11.	Ricky Wichum (Aachen) Computer Science and Computer Use in Public Administration in Switzerland (1960-1984)	07.01.	Nathalie Bredella (Hanover) Reimagining Cities: Computational Thinking in the Post-War Period
26.11.	Dirk Baecker (Friedrichshafen) Stochastic Systems	21.01.	Ulf Hashagen (Munich) Did the Computer Drive Science? Hardware Development and Digital Complexity in the 20th Century
17.12.	Alexandre Hocquet (Nancy) A Portrait of the Scientist as a User Keynote 8th HaPoC Conference	11.02.	Charlotte Bigg (Paris) Digital Complexity in Historical Perspective: Lessons from the Study of Technological Transitions in Data Production and Visualization

Room R102, Theaterstraße 75, 52062 Aachen

The 8th HaPoC Conference will take place in the conference rooms of the SuperC, Templergraben 57, 52062 Aachen

With funding from the:

Käte Hamburger Kolleg
Cultures of Research

